! BEFORE & AFTER !

So, for as long as I can remember I've always hated my teeth. I had braces when I was younger but never took care of them and this was a huge confidence issue for me. This time last year I went to see my dentist Jo @ Tiwari Watson Dental and spoke to him about what I wanted and he gave me three options to choose from I decided to go with the braces I expected there to be changes to my smile but I never expected the results that he gave me they are absolutely out this world and I genuinely cannot believe that these are my own teeth the same teeth as the first photo. I'll be forever grateful to him he hasn't only changed my smile but gave me a whole new lease of life and confidence

Best dental practice in the country

Another great experience at Tiwari Watson. Today I was with the hygienist and her kind and reassuring words make an unpleasant procedure easy as pie! Seriously the best dental practice in the country.
